

ABSTRACT

GRAMMAR EXAMINATION OF MİHRİ HATUN DİVANİ

Alperay YAPICI

Master's Thesis, Language and Literature of Turkish Department

Thesis Advisor: Doç. Dr. Şahin BARANOĞLU

Mihri Hatun is one of the poetesses who wrote in Turkish literature. Mihri Hatun who lived 16th century, adhered to Divan literature tradition in point of both form and contents.

15-16th is a period when text-based language of The Turkish Oguz which was introduced in Anatolia from 13th century, had become the standart. This period is also important in terms of solution in some cases that the problems of Turkey Turkish as well as examination in terms of language feature of text, show historical development of today's text. The aim of our study is to reveal the grammatical characteristic of Mihri Hatun Divanı which was written according to Divan Literature tradition in 16th century Ottoman court.

In this study, grammar analysis of Mihri Hatun Divanı was performed. In Divan it was given a number to poems which classified by type. And also it is given a number to couplets in poems. Examples, found by scanning grammar features of Divan, were given with codes consisting of poem's and couplet's number.

In this study, reveal the grammatical characteristics of Mihri Hatun Divanı. It is also shows that phonetic and morphological feature of Turkish for that period.

KEYWORDS: Mihri Hatun, Divan, Divan Poem, Examination of Grammar